NATION OF ISLAM, formerly referred to as the Muslim Cult of Islam, also known as Muhammad's Temples of Islam

In January, 1957, a source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD has described his organization on a nationwide basis as the "Nation of Islam" and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam".

On July 10, 1963, a second source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD is the national leader of the Nation of Islam (NOI); Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenword Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1960, Muhammad and other NOI officials, when referring to Muhammad's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using either "Mosque" or "Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Islam".

The NOI is an all-Negro organization which was originally organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. MUHAMMAD claims to have been selected by ALLAH, the Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following MUHAMMAD's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; that the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils," in the United States; and that the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon".

In the pat, officials and members of the NOI, including MUHAMMAD, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Acts and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

On May 5, 1958, the first source advised MUHAMMAD had, upon advice of legal counsel, tempered his personal statements and instructions to his ministers concerning the principles of his organization in order to avoid possible prosecution by the United States Government; however, he did not indicate any fundamental changes in the teachings of his organization.

NATION OF ISLAM (con't)

On July 10, 1963, a third source advised MUHAMMAD had early in July, 1958, decided to de-emphasize the religious aspects of the teachings of Islam and to stress the economic benefits to be derived by those Negroes who joined the NOI. This policy change, according to MUHAMMAD, would help him acquire additional followers and create more interest in his program.

On March 18, 1954, a source stated that the Nation of Islam (NOI) had become active in Boston, Massachusetts, and knew that it had held meetings as early as November, 1953.

On May 31, 1963, a second source stated that the Temple of Islam in Boston, Mascachusetts, is known as Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 11, or Muhammad's Mosque No. 11. It is located at 35 Intervale Street, Dorchester (Boston), Massachusetts, and is the local branch of Muhammad's Temple of Islam whose headquarters are in Chicago, Illinois.

MUSLIM MOSQUE, INCORPORATED

The March 13, 1964, edition of "The New York Times," a daily newspaper published in New York, New York, contained an article on page 20 which indicated that MALCOLM X (LITTLE), former national official of the Nation of Islam (NOI) and Minister of NOI Mosque #7, New York, who broke with the NOI on March 8, 1964, publicly announced in New York City on March 12, 1964, that he had formed the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated (MMI). The MMI, according to the article, would be a broadly based politically oriented' black nationalist movement for Negroes only, financed by voluntary contributions. In this public statement MALCOIM X urged Negroes to abandon the doctrine of non-violence when it is necessary to defend themselves in the civil rights struggle, and he also suggested that Negroes form rifle clubs to protect their lives and property in times of emergencies in areas where the government is unable or unwilling to protect them.

Incorporation papers of the MMI filed on March 16, 1964, with the Business Section, Clerk of Courts, New York County, New York, New York, reflect that the MMI was incorporated under the Religious Corporation Law of the State of New York to work for the imparting of the Islamic Faith and Islamic Religion in accordance with "accepted Islamic principles." The principal place of worship to be located in the Borough of Manhattan, New York, New York.

During an appearance over KYW - Television, Cleveland, Ohio, on April 7, 1964, MALCOIM X stated that the MMI does not stand for integration, but for complete freedom, justice, and equality for Negroes. He stated that Islam was the religious philosophy of the MMI, while the political, economic and social philosophy was black nationalism.

On May 15, 1964, a confidential source advised that the headquarters of the MMI are located in Suite 128, Hotel Theresa, 2090 Seventh Avenue, New York City, where they were established on March 16, 1964.

The above carried an article headed "Rosenberg & Worth Plan 'Lenny Bruce'". In substance the article revealed that the Lenny Bruce story was to be added to the production schedule of Marvin Worth with Stewart Rosenburg as Director. The article further explained that Marvin Worth was said to produce Malcolm X at Columbia with James Baldwin as writer of the script. SYNOPSIS: George Breitman, traces the life of Malcolm X from childhood to his violent death in 1965. #### BOOK REVIEW

The author describes the life of Malcolm X from his childhood to his assassination in February of 1965. After the death of his parents, he lived at state institutions and boarding homes until the age of 15 when he went to live with his sister in Boston, Massachusetts, and drifted into a life of crime including gambling, drugs, hustling, and burglary. In 1946 at the age of 20, he was convicted of burglary and sentenced to ten years in prison.

During his incarceration which continued for six years, he was introduced to the Nation of Islam headed by Elijah Muhammad. During this period he educated himself and learned to speak and debate. The author described him as the most respected debater in the country. After parole, he traveled to Chicago, Illinois; met Elijah Muhammad; was accepted into the Nation of Islam; and in a few short years his work, through his plain direct speaking style, helped transform the Black Muslims from a virtually unnoticed to a well-known organization.

While in the Black Muslims, Malcolm X traveled throughout the country as Muhammad's troubleshooter and came to know the ghetto areas nationally. According to the author, Malcolm X became attuned to the needs and wants of a growing multitude of black people looking for a new road. In 1964 he decided his place was with the Negro masses rather than with Muhammad's organization.

He split with Muhammad's organization and undertook the difficult task of building a new movement based on the black unity of all Negroes regardless of their religion and philosophies as long as they were ready to fight for freedom. His new organization was known as Muslim Mosque, Incorporated. He traveled to Africa and the Middle East to mobilize African support behind a project to put the United States Government on trial in the United Nations for continued oppression of the American Negroes. He favored Negroes organizing politically, electing their own candidates, and driving "black stooges" from office in the major political parties. Malcolm X was revolutionary and became increasingly more anticapitalist and prosocialist. He read the Socialist Workers Party publication, "The Militant," and urged other Negroes to do likewise.

No mention is made of the FBI in the book.

Epps noted first speech given at time when Malcolm X was deeply involved in Nation of Islam (NOI) and was dedicated follower of NOI head Elijah Muhammad. His remarks showed Black Muslim view of the white man as a lowly animal but freedom of the black man from yoke of white man was placed in terms of redemption by God. Shortly before second speech, Malcolm X resigned from the NOI because of disillusionment. BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY MAY 19, 1972 EXTREMIST MATTERS

- Mr. A. Rosen - Mr. E. S. Miller

Malcolm K. Little, better known as Malcolm X, black militant leader, was born 5/19/25. He was killed in New York City (NYC) 2/21/65.

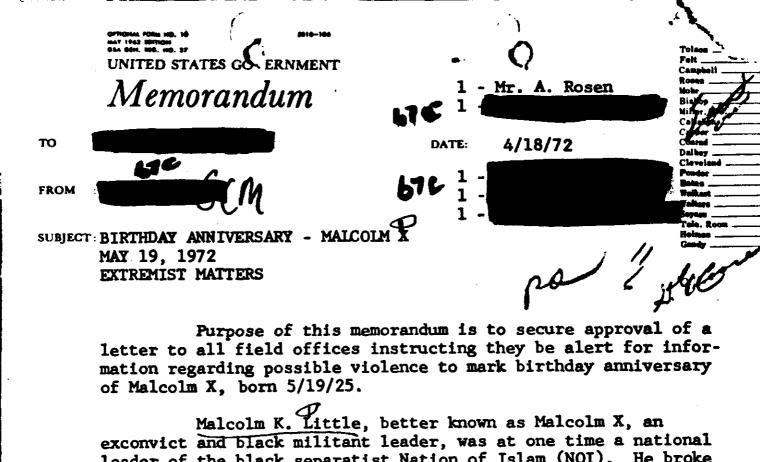

Because many of today's black revolutionaries regard Malcolm X as a hero and a martyr, the possibility exists that the anniversary of his birthday may be marked by them with acts of violence. As an example, last year two NYC police officers were seriously wounded in a machine gun attack by black assailants the night of 5/19. Anonymous letters claiming credit for the attack linked the shooting to "Malcolm's Birthday.

Bring this to the attention of all Agents handling black extremist matters so that they may be alert for any information concerning possible violence in connection with Malcolm X's birthday. Instruct black extremist informants to be particularly alert to obtain and report such information.

If any such information developed, promptly advise Bureau under appropriate caption and handle in accordance with existing instructions leader of the black separatist Nation of Islam (NOI). He broke with the NOI in 1964, set up his own organization known as the Muslim Mosque Incorporated, and developed a substantial following. On 2/21/65 he was shot to death while addressing a rally in New York City (NYC). Three Negroes, described as Black Muslims were later convicted of his murder.

Malcolm X is regarded as a hero and a martyr by many black revolutionaries and the possibility exists his birthday may be marked by them with acts of violence. Last year, for example, two NYC police officers were seriously wounded in a machine gun attack by black assailants the night of 5/19 and anonymous letters claiming credit for the attack linked the shooting to "Malcola's Birthday."

While no information has been received indicating any specific plans for violence to mark Malcolm X's birthday, it is deemed advisable to instruct the field to be alert to any such information and to target black extremist informants to be particularly alert to obtain and report such information.

That attached letter to all field offices in line with ACTION: above be approved. Enclosure Re-

Generally, African or Arabic names are used and members are forbidden to drink alcoholic beverages, use dope or eat pork.

THE BLACK UNITED FRONT

The Black United Front is a federation of Black people who have banned to promote the interests of the Black Community collectively and aggressively. The Black United Front recognizes the divisiveness of the power structure when it deals with Black organizations; however, the Front offers a platform by which the Black Community can come together to promote unity and to assemble points of view relevent to the liberation of Black people from oppression and exploitation. We shall chart courses of action toward issues that will motivate the Black Community to meaningful answers and alternatives.

Without the existence of such a Black United Front, the Black Community will continue to represent an image to destroy the prevailing system and attitudes which for so long have kept the Black masses in subjugation, degradation and humiliation.

advised that members of the Ujamma Shop, Soul School, and other brothers presented a play showing how the black man was exploited by the white slave master through out civilization. The white man came to Africa, killed. raped, and robbed the black man of his land and possessions. He then brought them into bondage to America. These same problems went on until the black man was so called "freed" after the Civil War. This so called freedom turned into a political and economical stage where the white man still controlled the life of the black brother. Next the black man is forced to go to war to fight a man who has done him no harm. When the black brothers reached the war zone he finds that the man who he has been told to fight calls him Then the black brother returns home to find out that the white man has enslaved his brothers and sisters by filling the community with dope. The black brothers should form a force and kill the white dope peddler and clean up his community.

There was a group of singers called the "Vandals" who the audience liked very much. The Super Simba Boot dancers of New Jersey performed African military marches directed by a leader, who spoke Swahili.

The main speaker was OWUSU SADAUKAI (master teacher) from Malcolm X University. He informed the audience it was "nation" time and all black brothers must march in the African Liveration Demonstration in Washington, D.C. The purpose of the march is to protect the exploitation of the blacks by white nations. SADAUKAI stated that he fought against white with black brothers and sisters and saw that most of the military equipment came from America. America has raised corporations and has billions of dollars invested in the lands of Africa and do not wish to see the black man free to own his own land because it would bankrupt his holdings. All of the persons attending the festival were invited to attend the celebration of Malcolm X's birthday to be held at Druid Hill Park, Sunday, May 21, 1972.

On May 22, 1972, and advised that a celebration for Malcolm X's birthday was held in Druid Hill Park on May 21, 1972. MAY 19, 1972

On May 17, 1972, a first confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that a rally was scheduled for 10:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m., May 19, 1972, in Franklin Park, Columbus, Ohio, in honor of Malcolm X. #### AFRO-AM

The Afro-Am was officially recognized as an organization at Ohio State University (CSU) during March, 1970, after black students participated in a demonstration and presented demands to the Vice President of OSU.

The organization's stated purpose is to govern all black organizations on the OSU campus, and to act as an information center for all black students.

On March 13, 1970, OSU obtained a common pleas injunction prohibiting any further disruption by the students who engaged in campus disruptive tactics by that date. This injunction included the Afro-Am.

Kemorandum to Mr. E. S. Miller Re: Book Review "The End of White World Supremacy" 100-399321

These speeches were delivered during period 12/62-12/63, the final year of Malcolm X's NOI affiliation, and all except one were presented in NYC.

The first and longest speech entitled "Black Man's History" was presented at Malcolm X's NOI Mosque No. 7 in Harlem 12/23/62. It includes rambling, grossly distorted, anti-white view of history emphasizing blacks' oppression by "white devils."

"The Black Revolution," the second speech, was delivered at Adam Clayton Powell's Abyssinian Baptist Church, NYC. Text relates view only lasting solution to race problem is complete racial separation. Malcolm X proposed that U. S. should give blacks land in proportion to population ratio or send blacks back to Africa and provide their subsistance there for 25 years.

"The Old Negro and the New Negro," the third speech, is actually Malcolm X's comments during appearance on Philadelphia radio station, Fall 1963, following address at University of Pennsylvania. Comments include his views on decline of European colonialism, awakening of "dark" world, and development of black pride and self-reliance.

The last speech, "God's Judgement of White America," (subtitled "The Chickens are Coming Home to Roost"), was delivered at Manhattan Center, NYC, on 12/3/63. He declares that decline of U. S. as world power is God's punishment for enslavement of 22 million blacks and, unless whites "repent," further retribution will occur. NEW YORK NY

SUBJECT:

MARIOUM WAS SPENKS

Yeung Socialists fevum, 12.18 p.m., U.S.C.P. (Town), July 30th, festures a taped speech on "The Black Revolution", gives in New York 10 years age.

-New facts that to come out in the light of the Watergate scandel have revealed strong implications that the FBI was involved in the assassinations of two of the most prominent leaders of the Black movement in the United States, Malcolm X and Marsin Luther King.

The new evidence consists of seven previously top secret memorandums issued by J. Edgar Hoover between 1961 and 1970. Xerox copies of these memorandums, (which outline a government plot to "expose, disrupt, misdirect or otherwise neutralise" the Black liberation movement), were released by the Government in March in response to a court order. Most references to individuals and organizations are blacked out or covered over, however by counting number of letters and spaces made by the typerwriter it's not hard to figure out who is being referred to.

One of the FBI's main aims was to prevent the amergence of a cohesive and radical leadership such as that which Malcolm X may have been able to give had he not been alain so soon. The circumstances of X's death (and also King's) have never been fully ar satisfactorily clarified. This fact and the publication of the FBI memos led to the allegation of Rev. Jesse Jackson (President of Operation PUSH, a leading Black organisation in Chicago, and also a former top aide of King's) that "the FBI figured prominently in the assessination of Malcolm X, Martin Luther King and Fred Hampoon".

Jackson himself was an eyewitness to King's murder and had described to reporters how the police, running sowards him after the shooting, had asked him where the short came from. Jackson pointed out that it came from right behind where they were running from ... they were coming from where the shot had been fired?

Malcolm X was murdered at the Audubon building in Harlem, 1908. One of the three men convicted of the murder admitted in court to being part of a group of hired attesses but refused to disclose who had hired these. Nine years later the loose ends are still left daugling.

Malcolm X represented the dynamic and revolutionary using of the Black movement. Unlike the other wing — epitomised by King — he evolved to a position where he did not think that Blacks would achieve equal rights let alone liberation by morely reforming the American system. This may be a position held fairly widely amongst radical Blacks today, but ten years ago it was a pretty during thing for a Black to say, Malcolm X was been also been assented by the same thing for a Black to say, where not only that he was cut down before he had sime so formulass all his ideas into a cohesive whole.

Malcolm X emerged from the Black Muslims of Elijah Muhammed but developed significant differences with Muhammed and left one year before his death. These last year he expressed his own independent and evolving views rather than those of the Muslims. He set about directoping them to a final outcome, drawing together she already existing ideas he had and additions and modifications from new experience and insight.

The idea of the white person as the enemy we beginning of political wisdom for Blacks who had illusions that the white racist power structure would! them freedom on a golden platter. The idea that Blacks had to fight for their freedom was an indespensals first step. As Malcolm X pointed out time after time Blacks needed to depend on their own organised streng their own independent movement, aims and programme. After this stage had been reached, where they were an organised force, then they might look for other sectors of society including working class whites, to ally with, making the right kind of alliances. And by the right kind of alliance he did not mean working in the Democratic Party, as many Black liberals and radicals have been doing. He regarded the Democratic Party with all the contempt it deserves, and saw that it was a backward step for Black militants to support that

He began to look into the root causes of racism and to see the possibility of its elimination. He began to study the nature of capitalism as a system - always from the point of view of how the interests of Black people could be protected and promoted. From this study - especially from the thinking initiated through his discussions with African revolutionaries - he came to the conclusion that the capitalist system was, and still is, the cause of racism, and that its impossible to have capitalism without having racism. Therefore socialis should seriously be considered as an objective by opprenationalities. While he was prevented from any furth development due to his death, it can at the very least be said that Malcolm X was pro socialist and anti-capitalist, shich was quite a thing for the times. It was his utter dedication, his honesty and his commitment to rele fight racium which propelled him in the direction of

From solve furtions. The only left wing prousings to support him were the Socialist Workers Party and Young Socialist Workers Party and Young Socialist Minance time Troiskyist party and youth group). Malent's X once drew as interesting line between the roulest groups. When he said, "If you love revolution, you'll love 3 lack nationalism". The Communist Party and the Malists loved neither!

It is ironic that at the time of his being murdered virtually nothing of what he said was in print, (apart from some articles in the SWP paper, "The Militant", and twisted reports in the establishment media), but since then thousands of people have read and heard his views, many of whom were probably unaware of him when he was alive.

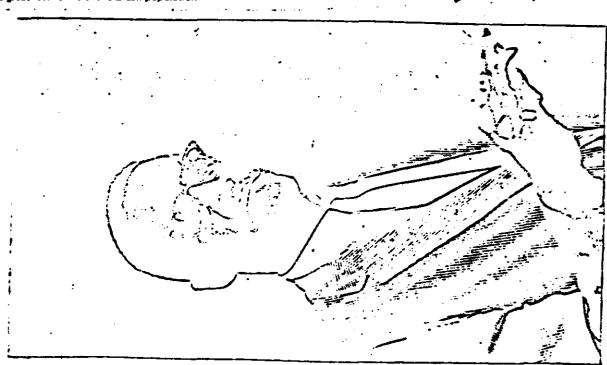

His work was the major influence on a whole wave of Black militants, including the founders of the Black Punther Party, stithough they later went off in a very different direction to the path which Malcolm X pointed to. Thus it was a great loss to the entire Black population

The Contarbury University Young Socialists have managed to get a tape of a speech that Malcolm X gave on April 8th, 1964 at the Militant Labour Forum organised by the SWP. The tape is called "The Black Revolution" and shows his ability as an orator, as well as Black leader, second to none. Anyone who has reed any of his speeches, such as in the collection "Malcolm & Speaks", can feel the power of the man's words.

- NOW YOU TO HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO HEAR THIS SPEECH BY THE MOST DYNAMIC POLITICAL LEADER, ORATOR AND THINKER THAT THE BLACK LIBERATION MOVEMENT HAS YET PRODUCED.

THE YOUNG SOCIALISTS WILL BE PLAYING IT AT A FORUM IN THE UPSTAIRS COMMON ROOM, TOWNSITE, ON JULY SO TH, AT 12.15.
